

2009 National Order of the Arrow Conference
Shawnee Lodge Members Only

Indiana University will be the gathering place for Arrowmen from around the United States in 2009. Indiana University located in Bloomington, Indiana will host the National Order of the Arrow Conference from August 1 through August 6, 2009. Activities will include training, exciting shows, dance competitions, sporting events, patch trading, ceremonial competitions, and a wide variety of other attractions.

The cost of the conference is $525. The fee includes fourteen meals, housing at the university, program and training materials, Shawnee Lodge t-shirt, Shawnee Lodge patch, and transportation. The National Committee will be setting the actual cost sometime in September/October. We will adjust the fee when we are notified by the National office.

Adult attendance will be based on youth participation. Adults will need to submit a statement of qualification and purpose for attending NOAC. The Shawnee Lodge NOAC committee will select the adults that will serve as adult leaders for the Shawnee contingent.

A $100 non-refundable deposit is required to hold a reservation. Submit form by February 13 to be included in the early registration. After February 13, the cost will be $565.00.

Additional details about the conference will be mailed to individuals, as it becomes available from the National OA Committee.
